

42 Christmas words that start with G

Prepared by KCCNJ.com

Christmas Words Starting with G

Christmas is a time of joy, celebration, and traditions. The language we use during this season is rich with words that evoke warmth, generosity, and holiday cheer.

Gift

A gift is an item given to someone without the expectation of payment. During Christmas, gift-giving is a central tradition that symbolizes love, appreciation, and the spirit of generosity.

Giving

Giving refers to the act of presenting gifts or sharing resources with others. It's a fundamental aspect of Christmas that reflects the season's emphasis on generosity and kindness.

Gift Wrap

Gift wrap is decorative paper used to cover presents. It adds an element of surprise and excitement to the gift-giving process.

Gift Exchange

A gift exchange is an organized activity where participants give and receive gifts, often following specific rules or themes. It's a popular Christmas tradition in many families, workplaces, and social groups.

Gift List

A gift list is a compilation of desired items that someone would like to receive as presents. It's often used to help gift-givers choose appropriate presents for their recipients.

Garland

A garland is a decorative wreath or chain made of flowers, leaves, or other materials. During Christmas, garlands are often used to adorn homes, trees, and public spaces.

Glitter

Glitter refers to small, reflective particles used for decoration. It's commonly found on Christmas cards, ornaments, and other festive items to add sparkle and shine.

Gold

Gold is a precious metal often associated with luxury and celebration. In Christmas decorations, gold represents one of the gifts brought by the Wise Men and is a popular color for ornaments and trimmings.

Green

Green is a color strongly associated with Christmas, representing evergreen trees and plants that remain vibrant during winter. It symbolizes life and renewal.

Glow

Glow refers to a soft, warm light often associated with candles, fireplaces, and Christmas lights. It creates a cozy and festive atmosphere during the holiday season.

Glowing

Glowing describes something that emits a steady, radiant light. It's often used to describe Christmas lights, candles, or the warm ambiance of holiday decorations.

Globe

In a Christmas context, a globe often refers to round ornaments used to decorate Christmas trees. It can also represent the global nature of Christmas celebrations.

Gonk

A gonk is a small, gnome-like decorative figure popular in Scandinavian Christmas traditions. These cute characters often feature in holiday decor.

Gingerbread

Gingerbread is a type of sweet food made with molasses and ginger, often shaped into houses or figures. It's a classic Christmas treat enjoyed in many cultures.

Gingerbread House

A gingerbread house is a model house made from gingerbread and decorated with icing and candy. Building and decorating these houses is a popular Christmas activity.

Gingerbread Man

A gingerbread man is a cookie shaped like a stylized human, often decorated with icing. It's a traditional Christmas treat and decorative item.

Goose

Goose is a type of poultry traditionally served as the main course in Christmas dinners in some cultures, particularly in Europe.

Gravy

Gravy is a sauce made from meat juices, often served with roasted meats during Christmas dinners. It's an essential part of many holiday meals.

Glögg

Glögg is a Nordic mulled wine, typically served warm during the Christmas season. It's made with red wine, spices, and sometimes stronger spirits.

Greetings

Greetings refer to expressions of goodwill exchanged during the holiday season, often in the form of cards, messages, or verbal exchanges.

Glad Tidings

Glad tidings are good news or happy announcements, often associated with the Christmas story and the birth of Jesus.

Goodwill

Goodwill refers to friendly, helpful, or cooperative feelings or actions. It's a sentiment strongly associated with the Christmas spirit.

Grace

In a Christmas context, grace can refer to a prayer said before a meal, or to the divine favor believed to be bestowed during the holiday season.

Gratitude

Gratitude is the feeling of being thankful or appreciative. Christmas often prompts reflection on blessings and expressions of gratitude.

Generosity

Generosity is the quality of being kind and giving. It's a central theme of Christmas, embodied in gift-giving and charitable actions.

Gabriel

Gabriel is an archangel who, according to Christian tradition, announced the birth of Jesus to Mary. He plays a significant role in the Christmas story.

God

In Christian tradition, God is central to the Christmas story.

Gospel

The Gospel refers to the teachings of Jesus Christ and the accounts of his life, including the nativity story central to Christmas.

Gaspar

Gaspar is traditionally named as one of the Three Wise Men or Magi who visited the infant Jesus, bringing gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Games

Games refer to various activities played for entertainment during Christmas gatherings. Many families have traditional games they play during the holiday season.

Gathering

A gathering is a coming together of people, often family and friends, to celebrate Christmas. It's a key aspect of holiday traditions for many.

Get-together

A get-together is an informal social gathering, common during the Christmas season when friends and family come together to celebrate.

Grotto

A grotto, in a Christmas context, often refers to a decorated cave-like space where Santa Claus meets and greets children in shopping centers or Christmas markets.

Glee

Glee refers to great delight or joy, an emotion often associated with Christmas celebrations, especially among children.

Grandeur

Grandeur refers to splendor or magnificence, often used to describe elaborate Christmas decorations or celebrations.

Grinch

The Grinch is a fictional character created by Dr. Seuss, known for trying to steal Christmas. The story often teaches about the true meaning of the holiday.

Ghost

In the context of Christmas, ghost often refers to characters in Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," where spirits visit Ebenezer Scrooge.

Glisten

Glisten refers to the sparkling or shining, often associated with snow or ice during the winter season.

Glacier

While not directly related to Christmas, glaciers are associated with cold, wintry landscapes that often feature in Christmas imagery.

Gloves

Gloves are hand coverings worn for warmth during cold weather, often associated with winter and Christmas time.

Gratitude

Gratitude is the feeling of being thankful or appreciative. Christmas often prompts reflection on blessings and expressions of gratitude.

Generosity

Generosity is the quality of being kind and giving. It's a central theme of Christmas, embodied in gift-giving and charitable actions.